My Breath.

Shortness of Breath

Is One of the Commonest Signs of Heart Disease.

Notwithstanding what many physicians say, heart disease can be cured.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure has permanently restored to health many thousands who had found no relief in the medicines (allopathic or homoeopathic) of regular practicing physicians.

It has proved itself unique in the history of medicine, by being so uniformly successful in curing those diseases.

Nearly always, one of the first signs of trouble is shortness of breath. Whether it comes as a result of walking or running up stairs, or of other exercises, if the heart is unable to meet this extra demand upon its pumping power—there is something wrong with it.

The very best thing you can do, is to take Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. It will go to the foundation of the trouble, and make a permanent cure by strengthening and renewing the nerves.

I know that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is a great remedy. For a number of years I suffered from shortness of breath, smothering spells, and pains in my left side. For months at a time I would be unable to lie on my left side, and if I lay flat on my back would nearly smother. A friend advised me to take Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which I did at once, and after taking several bottles of the Heart Cure the pains in my side and other symptoms vanished. I am now entirely well. All those dreadful smothering spells are a thing of the past.—F. P. DRAKE, Middletown, O.

If the first bottle does not help you, the druggist will refund your money.

CONDENSED STORIES.

Why the Tramp Got No Old Pants at the Chinese Legation.

All the members of the oriental legations, with the exception of the Chinese, have cut their hair and adopted conventional male attire, says the Washington Post. The Chinese minister and his suit still cling to their draperies and wear upstart shoes and four cornered hats.

A tramp who rang the bell at the Chinese legation not long ago asked if the gentleman of the house had a pair of old shoes to give away.

"DON'T WEAR 'EM," SAID MIKE.

Mike, the Irish butler and tutu-lary genius of the establishment, opened the door.

"No shoe," he said, "that world be of any use to you. This is the Chinese legation, man," he added, thinking that would be sufficient explanation for any seeker after cast-off clothing. But it signified nothing to the tramp, who had never heard of the Chinese legation.

"Maybe the gentleman has an old pair of pants," he began, pursuing his inquiries.

Michael realized the futility of further explanation.

"Don't wear 'em," he said briefly and closed the door.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent.

Mrs. V. J. Leggett, of Yum Yum, Tenn., writes: "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

Causes of Appendicitis.

Chill, imperfect mastication and the excessive use of aperients, according to Dr. Joseph Kidd in an article in the Nineteenth Century, are the chief causes of appendicitis. As all these are causes readily guarded against them will also conduce to general health and happiness, there seems to be no reason why intelligent people should not aid in banishing one of the most dangerous of modern diseases.

The Horses That Come High.

Last year in this country six horses earned more than $50,000 each on the turf. This reminds us of the old story of the young man who was scolded for wasting his money on fast horses. He replied, "It was the slow, not the fast, ones that were responsible for my downfall."—Boston Herald.

RECEIVING A BURGLAR.

What to Do When Mr. Thief Gets Into Your House.

"In these days," said a retired policeman, who lives in Washington Heights, where there have been several small burglaries lately, "it is no harm for men who live in detached houses in neighborhoods where the patrolmen have long beats to know one or two simple rules about protecting themselves from burglars. It is sheer foolishness and sometimes suicide to rush from your bed, light the gas and run out on the landing, pistol in hand. The burglar will find you a good deal quicker than you will find him. He is wide awake, while you are only half awake, and he has ascertained where you are likely to appear if aroused.

"Stay in your room if the burglar is elsewhere in the house and make as much noise as you can. The burglar will know that you are awake and get out of the house as quickly as he can. Burglars are easily frightened off. They don't want a scrap if they can help it. In the majority of instances they will get out of the place as fast as they can without taking their plunder with them.

"If the burglar is prowling in your room and awakens you, do not jump out of bed. Lie perfectly still and try to get in your mind some of the man's physical characteristics. Get his height, which it is easy to do from some article of furniture in the room—if, for instance, his head comes so far above the bureau. He will give you ample opportunity for this between the flashes of his dark lantern. Such information is usually very useful to policemen assigned to burglary work.

"When your burglar goes away with his plunder he usually departs through the rear door or window.
Watch which way he goes and follow him in as quick time as you can dress. On the road you may find a neighbor out late willing to go with you, or it is possible you might meet the policeman on beat. The rest is easy.

"The main point is to keep you and a burglar in the house keep quiet if he is in the room and make as much noise as you can if he is not in the room. Above all things, do not light the gas and open your bedroom door with the intent of attacking him. You are at his mercy then."—New York Press.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. C. R. Wainwright of Lemon City, Pa., has written the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

His Greatest Work.

"I suppose you saw the Venus of Milo?" said the eager art student to the young man who had just made a rapid tour of the European continent.

He nodded after a slight hesitation.

"I did," he said cautiously, "and I thought 'twas about the best piece of art over there. Of course that's only my idea."

"Many people agree with you," said the art student approvingly.

"It is very fine."

"Well, now, I'm glad to hear you say that," said the returned traveler.

"Knowing I'm not really up in art, of course I feel some hesitation in giving my opinion. But, do you know, candidly it didn't seem to me there was anything of Milo's that touched the Venus or came anywhere near it!"

When e'er you feel impending ill,
And need a magic little pill, No other one will fill the bill Like DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

The Famous Little Pills EARLY RIS-ERS cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy.
Good for either children or adults. J.
C. P. Jones, Chief Burgess, Milesburg Borough, Pa., says: "I never used pills in my family during the forty years of housekeeping, that gave such satisfactory results as DeWitt's Little Early Risers." Sold by M. S. Crain.

The Brahman's Clock.

The Brahman's clock divides the day into sixty hours of twenty-four minutes each, called ghurees, according to the Indianapolis News. Occasionally a twenty-four minute glass is used, but more commonly a copper bowl with a very small hole in the bottom of it, this bowl being placed on the surface of the water and gradually filled. If the hole in the bottom is correctly sized the bowl sinks in twenty-four minutes. This registers the duration of the ghuree. An attendant then empties the basin and within the hour of the day or night

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonies are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchafalpa (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Klona lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office to-day, we asked him about it. He says he had terrible pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer.
His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others who were also cured.
"Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach trouble.
Just as surely as the sun shines your stomach can be brought back to its original pure condition and life sweetened by this lasting and truly the greatest discovery known. Sold by M.
S. Crain.

What Will Be the Result?

A train is traveling at the rate of sixty miles an hour, and on the rear platform is a cannon pointing directly away from the direction of the train. This cannon fires a ball at the rate of sixty miles an hour.
If the train is going at a specified speed and the ball is fired in the opposite direction, what will become of it? Will the speed of the train and the speed of the ball compensate and the ball drop to the ground as if dropped from a solid stationary platform, or what will become of it?

Outside and Inside.

The ingenuity of people who think they are ill when they are not quite triumphs over any external evidence of health. A very stout German workman went to a physician and complained of being very unwell.

"But," said the doctor, "if you are sick it has not prevented you from getting pretty comfortably fat."

"Oh, dot fat!" said the German.

"Yes, I am fat on de outside, but on de inside—ach, I am so poor!"

Man's Unreasonableness.

is often as great as woman's. But Thos.
S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable when he refused to let the doctors operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five [6] physicians failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by Jackson Drug Co., price 50¢.

Disagreeable Economy.

Husband—I have not economical.
Wife—Well, if you don't call a woman economical who saves her wedding dress for a possible second marriage I'd like to know what you think economy is like.—San Francisco Bulletin.

His Line of Reasoning.

"What reason does he give for not paying his wife alimony?"

"He says that marriage is a lottery and hence alimony is a gambling debt."

—Collier's Weekly.

How to Ward Off Old Age.

The most successful way to ward off the approach of old age is to maintain a vigorous digestion. This can be done by eating only food suited to your age and occupation, and when any disorder of the stomach appears take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to correct it. If you have a weak stomach or are troubled with indigestion, you will find these Tablets to be just what you need. For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

Why Jennie Joined in the Clapping at the Concert.

Jennie's mother was most anxious that one of her children should develop musical talent, and so she tried the effect of afternoon concerts on Edna, George and Clara in turn, but they were all frankly bored by the performance. Then she gave Jennie a "try out," and at last her expectations seemed about to be realized.

Her eight-year-old daughter paid the strictest attention to the music all through the early part of the programme, and as each number came to an end she clapped her little hands with all the fervor of an encourage.

Jennie's mother beamed with pride at her small daughter's evidences of budding musical genius.
Then she had a fall. The orchestra was in the middle of a symphony, and Jennie began to get restless.

"Oh, mother," she whispered, "it's such a long time between the clapping."

Then it dawned on Jennie's mother that her small daughter thought the applause was some sort of a game.—New York Press.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

the Very Best.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harbin, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For Feared the Worst.

Friday Vizer, a familiar negro about town in a certain part of Mississippi, had been found dead, and being a member of no church or lodge—very unusual for a negro—there was no one to pray for his soul in the great beyond.
A few old intimates, however, carried the body to the cemetery in a rude pine casket, and Rob McEwen, one of the number, an old "befo' de wah danks," was called upon for a few remarks.
Bob removed his hat and stepped reverently and sadly toward the open grave and in solemn, funeral tones said: "Friday Vizer, you is gone. We hopes you is gone whar we s'pects you alit!" —Lippincott's Magazine.

True Greatness.

True greatness, first of all, is a thing of the heart. It is all alive with robust and generous sympathies. It is neither behind its age nor too far ahead of it.
It is up with its age and before it only just so far as to be able to lead its march. It cannot slumber, for activity is a necessity of its existence. It is no reservoir, but a fountain.—Roswell D.
Hitchcock.

Both Strong.

"For a moment," he related, "I held

"My," she interrupted admiringly, "how strong you must be!"

He edged away, blushed and felt in his vest pocket for a clove.—Cleveland Leader.

writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me.

"For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a Cough or Cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds
